MLV textile and engineering college Bhilwara
Date: 20 May 2025

Dear Khush soni :

We are pleased to offer you an internship opportunity. You have been selected for a 1-month remote/online internship program in the field of Artificial Intelligence, starting from 20 May 2025.

During this internship, you will undergo job-level training and work on real-life, company-level major projects that will help you develop practical skills and gain meaningful industry exposure. The internship is entirely remote, allowing you to learn and contribute from the comfort of your home.

Your official Internship ID Number will be issued within five days of starting the program. To receive your Internship ID Number, you are required to upload this offer letter on LinkedIn and complete the Offer Letter Acceptance Task Form (a link will be provided separately).

Once you have accepted the offer letter and received your Internship ID, your project will be assigned to you and training will start.

For any guidance during the internship, your assigned mentor will be Ms. Anshika Singh, who can be contacted via WhatsApp at 9991980433 (WhatsApp only) or by email at mits.anshikhasingh@gmail.com.

This internship is being offered by Micro Information Technology Services, a skill-building platform dedicated to delivering practical, project-based learning in the field of technology and engineering. The company is located at Mullana Town, Ambala, Haryana – 133203, and Official registration: UDYAM-HR-01-0051115 (Udyam Registration Number)

We look forward to having you on board and supporting your professional growth with us.

Sincerely,

Vijay Kumar S
